A.I. Analyst Sumant Welcomes Ex-Google CEO's Chaired A.I. Commission Report

2nd March, 2021, New York

Chief Analyst of '5 Jewels Research', Mr. Sumant Parimal, a Globally recognized 'A.I.' (Artificial Intelligence) Thought Leader has welcomed Ex-Google CEO Eric Schmidt chaired National Security Commission on Artificial Intelligence report urging the U.S. to boost its A.I. capabilities.

Commenting on recent report of National Security Commission on Artificial Intelligence \(NSCAI\) submitted under Eric Schmidt chairmanship to U.S. Govt., Sumant Parimal said "Areas of A.I. Tech. identified by Eric Schmidt chaired NSCAI commission for strengthening U.S. A.I. capabilities are in line with the emerging Tech. trends and A.I. powered U.S. shall be in best interest of the World. This report clearly highlights what need to be done for Defending America in the A.I. Era from the countries which are in conflict with U.S. and finally steps to be taken for making America winning the A.I. Technology race. These recommended steps are certainly going to boost innovation in High Tech. sector in U.S. and other partner countries, in turn going to help A.I. and Tech. industry in its growth".

"Growing threats of A.I. Powered Cyberattacks or disinformation attacks or drone swarms attacks or missile attacks are genuine concerns as highlighted in this NSCAI report, and strong defensive A.I. Tech. systems and tools should be adopted to safeguard nation and its citizens. And a roadmap to integrate such sophisticated A.I. Technologies for securing nation by 2025 is a realistic goal to pursue for Federal as well as State Govts. of U.S." Mr Sumant Parimal said further.

"I also welcome recommendation of NSCAI commission to increase R&D spend in A.I. for evolving A.I. tools and solutions for defending America against any A.I. led attacks. I am equally welcoming the commission recommendation to have a comprehensive immigration strategy for highly skilled immigrants to encourage A.I. talent to study, work, and remain in the United States, through new incentives and visa, green card, and job-portability reforms" Mr Sumant Parimal said further.
