

5Jewels Research (5JR) Press Release

“Ayushman Bharat Digital Mission To Spur $12B Of A.I. Innovations In India”-Analyst

28th Sept. 2021, New Delhi

On Monday, PM Modi launched the Ayushman Bharat Digital Mission in New Delhi through Video Conferencing , which is going to be a widely accessed and used Govt. created digital platform for healthcare services delivery in India.

Analyst of 5Jewels Research has estimated that Ayushman Bharat Digital Mission To Spur $12B of A.I. (Artificial Intelligence) Innovations In India.

While speaking today in Global Artificial Intelligence Summit & Awards which was organized by AICRA and NITI Aayog at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi, Chief Analyst of 5Jewels Research, Mr Sumant Parimal has said “Ayushman Bharat Digital Mission launched by Govt. of India is going to have a disruptive impact on how healthcare services gets delivered to people of India, it is going to add scale, speed, economy and predictability in getting high quality health care services delivered on demand to people sitting in even remotest part of India by using digital technologies. Ayushman Bharat Digital Mission is not only about health care services, but it is also going to spur over $12Billion of A.I. Tech. innovations in India, as it shall become a digital infrastructure on which various new innovative solutions and businesses even outside health care domain like in insurance, wellness, drug discovery, social security & services, gets build up”.

“It is going to harness physicians’ knowledges and insights on many diseases & diagnosis intelligences, which gets captured in the centralized data base of Ayushman Bharat Digital Mission and have potentials to become one of the World’s largest knowledge assets pools in healthcare domain, which can be further monetized” Mr Sumant Parimal added.

In this Summit, distinguished A.I. experts panel deliberated on how A.I. is going to impact health care industry.

End of Press Releases

Press Contact: pr@innogress.com